If a female and bred, service to be certified to and shown on the export certificate.
3. For animals born in the United States or animals from the United States imported from Great Britain or Ireland, the Secretary of the American Clydesdale Association shall furnish a certificate of registration showing the name and address of the Canadian purchaser, with date of sale, and ancestors registered and numbered as provided for in sections 1A and 1B of this article above. If a female and bred, service to be certified to and shown on the certificate of registration issued by the American Clydesdale Association.

APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION

1. Applications for registration of animals from Great Britain, the Irish Free State or Northern Ireland, must be made on forms supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation and signed by the importer, show date of importation and be accompanied by the export and tabulated certificates. All blank spaces must be filled in, in ink, or typewritten.
2. Applications for registration of animals born in Canada must be made on forms supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation. All blank spaces must be filled in, in ink, or typewritten and the form must be signed by the owner of the animal at time of birth, by the breeder of the animal and by the owner of the sire at the time the dam was served.
3. Applications for registration of animals registered in the American Clydesdale Stud Book must be made on forms supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation and accompanied by the certificate of registration issued by the American Clydesdale Association showing Canadian purchaser, with date of sale. All blank spaces must be filled in, in ink, or typewritten and the form must be signed by the Canadian purchaser.
4. Twin animals must be registered at the same time providing both are living. If one is dead it must be so stated and the sex of the dead animal given.
5. The breeder of an animal is the owner or lessee of the dam at the time she was served. The first owner is the owner of the dam at the time the animal was born.
6. No two animals shall have the same name. Letters shall not be used as a prefix to a name. Names shall not contain more than thirty letter spaces or characters including numeral affix.
7. An animal, born in Canada as a result of artificial insemination or embryo transplant, the produce of a sire and dam registered in the Canadian Clydesdale Stud Book or recognized stud book from any other country, may be registered under the regulations approved by this Association and the Department of Agriculture for Canada.

TRANSFERS AND DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES

1. In the case of the sale of an animal the seller must furnish a certificate of registration in the Clydesdale Stud Book of Canada showing the purchasers' ownership. Refusal to do so on any pretext whatever, except under written contract, shall be ground for his expulsion, if a member, from the Association; if not a member, further applications for registration or transfer shall be refused.
2. Applications for registration of change of ownership must be made on forms supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, and must give date of sale and date of delivery and in the case of a female if bred service certificate must be completed.

Change of ownership will be endorsed on the back of the original certificate of registration which must be forwarded to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation with the application for transfer.

3. In case a male or female is leased or loaned for breeding purposes the form of lease supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation must be filled in and signed by the lessor and forwarded together with the certificate of registration to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation to be placed on record. The lessee will in all cases be considered the breeder of the progeny of leased or loaned females.

4. A duplicate certificate may be issued if the registered owner or his authorized agent files a statutory declaration on a form supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, showing in a satisfactory manner that the original is lost, destroyed or unobtainable.

REGISTRATION OF NAMES

A breeder may register for his exclusive use a name to be used as a prefix in naming his animals. A particular name will be allowed to one person or partnership only, and in registering such names priority in use and in application for registration shall be considered. Letters shall not be used as a prefix to a name. Names shall not contain more than thirty letter spaces or characters, including numeral affix. It shall not be permissible to change the name of an animal after it has been registered thirty days. In the event of a change in the name of a partnership or company or if any party is taken into partnership, the name may be transferred upon application to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation of the registered owner or his authorized representative. Likewise the transfer may be made from a deceased owner to his heir.

A registered name may be transferred to another person or persons on application of the person in whose name it is registered. After the expiration of five years, a registered name will be forfeited if it has not been used in registering an animal by the registered owner.

PRIVATE BREEDING RECORDS

There shall be kept by each breeder a private record which shall contain full particulars of his breeding operations. This record shall at all times be open to the inspection of officials of this Association, officials of the Department of Agriculture for Canada and officials of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation.

MEMBERSHIP

No member shall be entitled to any of the rights and privileges of the Association during any year until his annual fee for that year is paid. On March 31st, in each year all members who paid for the preceding year but who have not paid for the then current year shall be removed from the membership roll. They may, however, elect to register or transfer at non-members' rate during this three month period. They may nevertheless again become members in the manner prescribed by this constitution.
