CANADIAN PONY SOCIETY

BY-LAWS

1. NAME

The Society shall be the “Canadian Pony Society”.

2. OBJECTS

The Society shall have for its object the encouragement, development and regulation of the breeding of Ponies in Canada.

1. By keeping a record of the breeding and origin of ponies and by collecting, preserving and publishing data and documents relating to same.
2. By establishing standards of breeding and by carrying out a system of registration under the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation system.
3. By adopting means from time to time to protect and assist breeders engaged in propagation and breeding of pure bred ponies in compliance with the Animal Pedigree Act or any regulation made thereunder.
4. By maintaining an efficient supervision of breeders of ponies to prevent, detect and punish fraud.
5. By compiling statistics of the industry and furnishing official and authentic information in regard thereto.
6. And for these purposes to have power to make all needful contracts and agreements, and to make, alter and repeal regulations subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth.

3. MEMBERS

1. There shall be five classes of members:

(a) HONORARY MEMBERS: - The Society may appoint honorary life members at a general meeting if the Board of Directors have, by resolution, named the proposed member or members and recommended that such appointment be made, but such honorary member shall take no part in the management of the Society’s affairs, their position shall be purely honorary.

(b) LIFE MEMBERS: - Life members shall be those individuals who have paid the prescribed life membership.

(c) ANNUAL MEMBERS: - Annual members shall be those individuals, partnerships, or companies incorporated under Federal or Provincial charter, resident in Canada who pay the prescribed annual membership fee, due the first day of January each year.

(d) NON-RESIDENT MEMBERSHIP: - Individuals resident outside of Canada may become annual members on the approval of the Board of Directors, but shall not hold office or be entitled to vote at any meeting.

(e) JUNIOR MEMBERS: - Junior members shall be those individuals who have not reached their 18th birthday as of January 1st of the current year, resident in Canada, and who pay the prescribed Annual membership fee, due the first day of January each year, but shall not hold office or be entitled to vote at elections or on financial matters.

2. Application for annual membership shall be in writing and each applicant on becoming a member shall agree to be bound by the constitution and amendments thereto and all rules of the Society, but the Society shall have power to reject any application for membership.

Application for partnership or incorporated company membership shall specify the person authorized to vote, act or sign for the partnership or company. A member of a partnership or company other than the person mentioned in the application may be authorized by the partnership or company to act or vote.

3. All members in good standing shall as a matter of contract and except as hereinafter provided enjoy the same rights and privileges and be subject to the same liabilities as the original incorporators of this Society. No member who is in arrears of membership or other fees or dues shall enjoy such rights and privileges.

4. A member in good standing is a member who has complied with the regulations as hereinafter set forth and who is not in arrears of membership or other fees or dues or suspended.

5. The financial liability of the member to the Society shall be limited to the amount due from him in respect to his membership and registration fees.

6. A member may, provided he is not in arrears of membership or other fees or dues, at any time resign from membership in the Society by giving the General Manager, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, notice in writing of his intention so to do, but membership shall not terminate until the end of the then current membership year.

7. No member shall be entitled to any of the rights and privileges of the Society during any year until his annual fee for that year is paid. On March 31st in each year all members who paid for the preceding year but who have not paid for the then current year shall be removed from the membership roll. They may, however, elect to register or transfer at non-members' rate during this three months period. They may nevertheless again become members in the manner prescribed by this constitution.

8. No members shall hold office or be entitled to vote at a meeting or to give notice to amend this constitution if at the time in arrears of membership or other fees or dues and no applicant shall be entitled to vote until his application for membership has been accepted.

9. A member may at the discretion of the Board of Directors receive free of charge publications which are issued during each year of his membership for which he has paid the membership fee.

10. The Board of Directors shall have the power to suspend or expel any member who fails to observe any rule or regulation set forth in this constitution or whose conduct is in the opinion of the Board prejudicial to the interests of the Society. A member so suspended or expelled shall after the expiration of sixty days have the right to apply to the Board of Directors for reinstatement, and shall on application be reinstated at the next meeting of the Board, provided two-thirds of the members of the Board present thereat vote in the affirmative. If the Board of Directors refuses to reinstate a person suspended or expelled from membership, such person shall have the right to apply for reinstatement by the next succeeding general meeting, but reinstatement by a general meeting shall be only by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, thereat and voting.

A member who automatically suspends himself under any rule or regulation of this Society shall after the expiration of ten days have the right to apply to the Board of Directors for reinstatement and shall on application be reinstated at the next meeting of the Board, provided two-thirds of the members of the Board present thereat, vote in the affirmative. If the Board of Directors refuses to reinstate a person automatically suspended from membership, such person shall have the right to apply for reinstatement by the next succeeding general meeting, but reinstatement by a general meeting shall be only by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, thereat and voting.

11. Any person expelled from membership by any other association incorporated under the Animal Pedigree Act shall not be eligible for membership in this Society and if he is a member at the time of such expulsion, his membership shall thereupon forthwith terminate automatically.

12. The membership year of the Society shall correspond with the calendar year.

13. VOTING – Voting by members may be by person vote while attending a meeting or by proxy or by mail ballot. Proxy and mail ballots in specific form will be forwarded with the notice of meeting. Proxies and mail ballots must be received by the Secretary no later than 24 hours prior to the meeting.

4. OFFICES

The head office of the Society shall be located in the Province of Ontario and the office for the registration of pedigrees shall be the office of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, in the City of Ottawa, Ontario, under the supervision of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation.

5. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Society shall correspond with the calendar year.

6. OFFICERS

1. DIRECTORS: - The affairs of the Society shall be managed by a Board of eight (8) Directors who shall be elected at the Annual Meeting.

Members unable to attend the Annual Meeting may be considered for nomination providing they submit a signed statement to the Secretary, prior to the meeting, indicating their willingness to stand. Voting shall be by secret ballot placed in a regulation ballot box supplied for the purpose. In order that there may be a continuity of experienced Directors at all time, four shall be elected for a term of two years in 2008 and every two years thereafter.

The Board shall have the power to fill any vacancies which may occur among their number, officers or committees, providing, however, that any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the end of the term, but shall be then eligible for re-election. The Board of Directors may delegate any of their powers to the Executive Committee.

2. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: - The Directors shall at their first meeting after each annual general meeting elect by ballot three of their number to act on the Executive Committee who together with the President and Vice-President shall constitute the Executive Committee. A copy of the minutes of each Executive meeting shall be forwarded to each Director and the General Manager, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation within ten days after a meeting.

3. SPECIAL COMMITTEES: - The Board of Directors may appoint from their number or from the other members of the Society special committees, but must in all cases name one of their number a member who shall be the presiding officer. The action of any special committee is subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. Any Committee except the Executive Committee shall have power to add to its number.

4. HONORARY PRESIDENT: The Board of Directors may appoint honorary presidents. They shall hold office during pleasure of the Board.
5. PRESIDENT: - The President shall be elected annually from among their number by the Board of Directors at their first meeting after the annual general meeting. He shall hold office for one year or until his successor is elected and shall be eligible for re-election. The duties of the president shall be to preside at all meetings of the Society and the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee, to exercise a general supervision over the affairs of the Society and generally to do all matters, acts and things as are usually done by Presidents of similar organizations, and he shall be a member of all committees.
6. VICE-PRESIDENT: - A Vice-President shall be elected in a like manner to and at the same time as the election of the President, hold office for a similar term and in case the President is unable to act on account of illness or absence, perform all the duties of the President.
7. SECRETARY-TREASURER: - The Board of Directors shall from time to time as occasion may require, appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer or a Secretary-Treasurer who shall act under the control and with the approval of the Board of Directors. The duties of the Secretary shall be to attend all meetings of the Society and the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee and to keep exact minutes of the proceedings of same, and to do such other things as may be delegated to him by this constitution, the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee. The Treasurer shall deposit all monies received by him in a chartered bank, to the credit of this Society, and shall pay same out again by cheque only, countersigned by the President or forward same to the Accountant, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation as herein provided. He shall deposit for safekeeping all the securities owned by this Society in a safety deposit vault as may be approved of by the Board of Directors. He shall keep proper books of account containing entries of all such matters or things as are usually entered in books of account, and shall furnish from time to time such statements in detail of the affairs of the Society or such other matters as may be directed by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee. He shall file for safekeeping the articles of Incorporation and any revision thereof.
8. REGISTRAR: - The Canadian Livestock Records Corporation Board of Directors shall assign to this Society a person to act as Registrar. The duties of the Registrar shall be similar to the duties of other Registrars in the employ of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation.
9. PEDIGREE COMMITTEE: - The Secretary, the Registrar and the General Manager, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, shall be a committee with authority to authorize change of ownership and registration of pedigree where the signatures or other information are for any other reason unobtainable. The decision of the Committee shall if unanimous be final. If the Committee is not unanimous the matter in question shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for decision. This Committee or the Board of Directors shall have no power to authorize the registration of any animal unless the pedigree of breeding submitted complies in all particulars with the rules of eligibility for registration as outlined elsewhere in these by-laws. All decisions of the committee shall be submitted to the Board of Directors and shall be incorporated in the minutes of their next meeting.

10. AUDITOR: - The Society at each annual general meeting shall appoint an auditor or auditors, and fix their remuneration. His duty shall be to examine each year the books of account of the Society, vouchers for all payments and certify the usual statements of receipts and expenditures and assets and liabilities for the year, for presentation to the next annual general meeting.

11. REPRESENTATIVES: - Representatives to organizations asking that such be appointed shall be appointed at the annual general meeting, but if for any reason any of these are not so appointed, the Board of Directors shall have power to appoint the same. Representatives to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation shall be appointed by the Board of Directors.

12. PROVINCIAL SOCIETIES: - Members of this Society in good standing may organize Provincial Societies under a constitution approved by the Board of Directors. The activities of any such Provincial Societies shall be confined solely to its own Provincial interests and shall not conflict in any way with the activities of this Society. Not more than one Provincial Society in each province shall be organized.

7. MEETINGS

1. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held at such time and place as decided upon by the Executive Committee of the Society. Other general meetings shall be held at the time and place fixed by the Board of Directors. A notice of at least twenty-one days in advance shall be given by post, indicating the time and place of meeting. This notice shall be given by a circular letter postage prepaid to each of the members of his last known post office address appearing on the books of the Society. In the event of the Society publishing an official organ a notice published therein shall be deemed to be sufficient.

A copy of the notice calling an annual or general meeting shall be forwarded to the Minister of Agriculture for Canada and to the General Manager, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, in a like manner as to members of the Society.

2. Notice of meetings of the Board of Directors other than the one immediately following the annual general meeting shall be mailed postage prepaid to each one of them seven days at least before the date of meeting to his last known post office address appearing on the book of the Society or by facsimile or electronic means at least three days before the date of meeting.

3. A meeting of the Board of Directors may be held on shorter notice or without written notice providing all Directors have given their consent in writing to the meeting being held. A minute of such consent shall be entered in the minutes.
4. Notice of meetings of the Executive Committee shall be mailed postage prepaid to each member thereof three days at least before the date of the meeting to his last known post office address appearing on the books of the Society.
5. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be held on shorter notice or without written notice providing all have given their consent in writing to the meeting being held. A minute of such consent shall be entered in the minutes.
6. For the transaction of the business of the Society at an annual or other general meeting a quorum shall be eight; at a meeting of the Board of Directors a quorum shall be five; at a meeting of the Executive Committee a quorum shall be three.
7. At the written request of twenty members the Secretary shall call a special general meeting of the Society which meeting shall have the same status as if it had been called in the regular way by the Board of Directors of this Society but such meeting shall have no power to amend these by-laws.
8. A copy of the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee shall be mailed within 21 days following such meeting, to each Director, to the General Manager, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, and to each member.

8. ORDER OF BUSINESS

The order of business at all annual and general meetings shall be as follows:

1. Identification of members.
2. Reading minutes of previous meeting.
3. Report of officers, directors and committees.
4. Correspondence.
5. Unfinished business.

7. New business.
8. Adjournment

The above order with the exception of "1" Identification of Members, may be changed at the pleasure of the meeting assembled.

9. AUDIT AND ANNUAL REPORTS

The Board of Directors at each Annual General Meeting shall submit a complete report of its acts and of the affairs of the Society. It shall present a detailed statement, duly audited, of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year and of the assets and liabilities of the Society. A copy of this report, a list of the members, the officers elected and the representatives to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, also general information on the affairs of the Society shall be sent to the Minister of Agriculture for Canada and to the General Manager, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, within twenty days after the Annual Meeting. A copy of the annual report shall be mailed to each member in good standing.

10. EXPENSES, INCOME AND PROPERTY

The income and property of the Society from whatever source derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion and furtherance of the objects of the Society and no part thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of bonus or otherwise as profit or gain to members of the Society, past, present or future, or to any person claiming through any member provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the bona fide payment of remuneration to any secretary, treasurer, registrar, officer, clerk or servant or other person or persons for services actually rendered the Society whether such are members of the Society or not, and the expense, of the directors or other officers, incurred in doing the business of the Society.

The Society shall with other organizations comprising the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation pay to the Board of Directors of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation a proportionate amount of the expense of conducting the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation office.

11. DISTRIBUTION OF CONSTITUTIONS

The Society shall supply a copy of the By-laws to all members in good standing in the year in which they become a member and every new member as they become members.

12. AMENDMENTS, AMALGAMATION, DISSOLUTION

BY-LAWS: These by-laws may be amended at any general meeting of the Society, with the exception of a meeting called under Article 7, Section 7, of these by-laws, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members voting, but no amendment shall be valid until approved by the Minister of Agriculture for Canada. Notice of all proposed amendments shall be given to the Secretary thirty days in advance of a general meeting and they shall be included in the notice calling such meeting; otherwise they shall have no power to deal with same.

12.2 INCORPORATION:

- 1) (a) To change the association name / or
- (b) To add the name of a breed or delete a breed / or
- (c) To amend the Articles of Incorporation

Notice of the pending amendment change must be circulated to the active Life Members and Annual Members 30 days prior to a General Meeting convened for the specific purpose to discuss the pending amendment.

To gain approval for amendment change by: -

In case membership fees to the Society are received by the Treasurer of this Society, they shall immediately be forwarded to the Accountant, Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, Ottawa, for deposit.

14. CORPORATE SEAL

The seal as stamped in the margin hereof, shall be the corporate seal of the Society.

15. REGISTRATION OF PEDIGREES

1. A register shall be kept at the office of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation. This register shall be known as the Canadian Pony Stud Book and shall be published by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation at such time as decided by the Board of Directors and in such form as the information on office duplicates of certificates of registration issued warrants.

2. There shall be furnished by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation for all living animals registered a certificate of registration on the form adopted by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation Board of Directors. The pedigree shall be in such form as decided on by the Board of Directors.

3. Any person suspended or expelled from membership shall not be allowed the privilege of recording pedigrees in the record of the Society.

4. Any person prohibited from recording pedigrees by any other organization incorporated under the Animal Pedigree Act shall not be allowed to record pedigrees in the Canadian Pony Stud Book.

5. The Board of Directors of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation shall have power, for any cause which in the opinion of the Committee seems proper, to refuse applications for registration or transfer from any person whether a member or not. Any such action taken by the Board of Directors under this provision shall be immediately reported to this Society.

16. IDENTIFICATION

The Board of Directors shall make regulations for a practical and effective system of identification of all ponies to be registered.

17. REGISTRATION OF NAMES

A breeder may register for his exclusive use a name to be used as a prefix in naming his animals. A particular name will be allowed to one person or partnership only, and in registering such names priority in use and in application for registration shall be considered. Letters shall not be used as a prefix to a name. Names shall not contain more than thirty letter spaces or characters, including numeral affix. It shall not be permissible to change the name of an animal after it has been registered thirty days. In the event of a change in the name of a partnership or company or if any party is taken into partnership, the name may be transferred upon application to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation of the registered owner or his authorized representative. Likewise the transfer may be made from a deceased owner to his heir.

A registered name may be transferred to another person or persons on application of the person in whose name it is registered. After the expiration of five years a registered name will be forfeited if it has not been used in registering an animal by the registered owner.

18. PRIVATE BREEDING RECORDS

There shall be kept by each breeder a private record which shall contain full particulars of his breeding operations. This record shall at all times be open to the inspection of officials of this Society, officials of the Department of Agriculture for Canada and officials of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation.

19. STANDARD FOR REGISTRATION

Standards for registration may from time to time and as occasion may require be made in a manner determined by the Board of Directors of this Society.

20. SUSPENSIONS - EXPULSIONS

a. Suspended Member: - A suspended member is a member who has been suspended by the Board of Directors or who automatically suspends himself because he has not conformed to the rules and regulations of this Society, or who as a member has been placed on probation by the Board of Directors of the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation.

b. Suspended Registration: - A suspended registration is a registration of pedigree or transfer that has been placed under suspension by the Board of Directors or by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation on account of some irregularity; such suspension to remain until same has been lifted by a resolution of the Directors of this Society.

21. RULES OF ELIGIBILITY

The following shall be eligible for registration:

SHETLAND PONIES – Standard 44 inches

- a. Animals the sires and dams of which are recorded in the Canadian Pony Stud Book.
- b. Animals imported from any country must be recorded in a registry recognized by the Canadian Pony Society, and must show at least three successive generations of purebred registered ancestry on both the sire and dam side. 22. APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION

1. Applications for registration of animals from countries other than Canada must be filled in, in ink or typewritten, signed by the importer, show date of importation and be accompanied by certificates of registration showing that they were registered in the record of the country from which they come, in the name of the Canadian importer, and if an animal is in foal in order to register the produce, a certificate must be furnished signed by the owner of the service sire and certified by the stud book authorities in which he is registered.
2. Application for registration of all animals born in Canada must be made on forms supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation. All blank spaces must be filled in, in ink or typewritten, and the form must be signed by the owner of the animal at the time of birth, by the breeder of the animal and by the owner of the sire at the time the dam was served. The dam must be registered in the Canadian Pony Stud Book in the name of the owner signing and the sire must be registered in the Canadian Pony Stud Book in the name of the owner signing and the sire must be registered in the Canadian Pony Stud Book in the name of the owner certifying the service.
3. Twin animals must be registered at the same time providing both are living. If one is dead it must be so stated and the sex of the dead animal given.

4. The breeder of an animal is the owner or lessee of the dam at the time she was served. The first owner is the owner of dam at the time the animal was born.
5. No two animals shall have the same name. Letters shall not be used as a prefix to a name. Names shall not contain more than thirty letter spaces or characters including numeral affix.

23. TRANSFERS AND DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES

1. No person shall sell, as registered, or as eligible to be registered, or as a purebred any animal without providing to the buyer thereof, within six months after the sale, the animal's duly transferred certificate of registration. Refusal to do so on any pretext whatever except under written contract shall be grounds for his expulsion.
2. Application for registration of change of ownership must be made on forms supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, and must give date of sale and date of delivery and in the case of a female if bred service certificate must be completed. Change of ownership will be endorsed on the back of the original certificate of registration which must be forwarded to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation with the application for transfer.
3. In case a male or female is leased or loaned for breeding purposes, the form of lease supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation must be filled in and signed by the lessor and forwarded together with the certificate of registration to the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation to be placed on record. The lessee will in all cases be considered the breeder of the progeny of leased or loaned females.
4. A duplicate certificate may be issued if the registered owner or his authorized agent files a statutory declaration on a form supplied by the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation, showing in a satisfactory manner that the original is lost, destroyed or unobtainable.
